

SOURCE: Albert and Cecil

POLITICAL DELEGATES OF THE FRENCH COMMUNIST PARTY IN MOSCOW

SOUVARINE, Boris, 1922-24
JACOB, J., 1922-24
TRKIN, Albert 1922-1927
GRENET (HELLOUX, Francois, 1927-1928, YOUNG)
RANDE, Henri 1928-1929
FERRAT, Andre 1929-1932
MARTY, Andre 1932-1933
VASSART, Albert 1934-1935
MARTY, Andre 1935-1936
COCHET, Georges 1937-1937
DECAUX, Jules 1937-1939
THOREZ, Maurice 1940-1944
STANON, Alain 1945-1946
COHEN, Marcel 1946-

DELEGATES TO THE PROVINTERS IN MOSCOW:

MORLET, 1922-1923
TOMARE, 1923-1926
DELOHILLE, Marcel 1927-1929
MAUVAIS, Leon 1929-1931
COURTAGE, Henri 1931-1933
BOUCHOUSSEAU, Gaston 1933-1934
ARRACHARD, Rene 1935-1936

COMINTERN POLITICAL REPRESENTATIVES IN PARIS:

GOLDENBERG, 1919, Father of Leo Hanson of MRP
ZASLAVSKY, 1920
VALETSKY, 1923
POLOVINSKY, 1924-1925
GURALSKY, 1924-1925, alias August KLEIN, alias LEPETIT (See Cecil's notes on "Out of the Night")
WILLIAMS, George, 1925-1928
FRANK, Anna (Temporary) 1927-1928
FRANK and George Williams, the latter particularly during the Front Populaire. FRANK from 1929
FRANK, 1944-1947 (Visits to Paris)
WILLIAMS, George, frequent visit to Paris following Liberation.

Comp: ND

SOURCE: COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL,
Organ of the Executive Committee of the Communist International,
No. 52 (178), December 28, 1928.
Moscow. (Translation)

BIBLIOGRAPHIC INDEX

of the "Communist International" for 1928

(The figure in parentheses is the number of the journal in which the given article is to be found).

* * * * *

United States of North America

BILL DUNNE. The tactics of the communists in the trade union movement of the United States of North America, the organization of the unorganized, the attitude toward the existing trade unions (27-28).

A. BOSSE. Decline of American farm economy (18 and 19).

F. G. Under the banner of "Americanism" (2).

JOHNSTONE. Perspectives of American imperialism and the right danger in the American Communist Party (44-45).

J. ZACK. The historical step of the American workers (39-40).

J. ZACK. Why must the Worker's Party in the United States of America base itself on unorganized, semi-qualified and unqualified workers? (22).

J. LOVESTONE. The struggle of America for world hegemony (38).

J. LOVESTONE.

- 2 -

J. LOVESTONE. The sharpening of economic contradictions in the United States of America (13).

J. LOVESTONE. Practical moments in the campaign for the Worker's Party (22).

J. LOVESTONE. How the American communists conduct their election campaign (27-28).

N. NASONOV. Reformism at the Presidential elections in the United States of America. (47).

J. PEPPER. The negro problem in the United States of North America (33-34).

J. PEPPER. The program of action in America (31-32).

J. PEPPER. Communist International tactics and America (22).
With regard to one election document (27-28).

A. ROMANSKY. American capital in France (13).

J. FORD AND W. WILSON. On the question regarding the work of the American Communist Party among the negroes (31-32).

FOSTER. The "Socialism" of capitalistic rationalization and the crisis of the American labor movement (15 and 16).

H. HAYWOOD. The negro question and the tasks of the American Communist Party (33-34).

P. SHUBIN. The impending crisis and the attack of North-American imperialism (5 and 8).

L. ENGDAHL. The American Communist Party is fighting against the right danger and Trotskism (50).

L. ENGDAHL.

- 3 -

L. ENGDAHL. The election of Hoover (46).

" "The undesirable citizen" (21).